

The idea of a no-call list is to provide the consumer with the opportunity to avoid incessant calls from those that they do not want to do business with. If you force the state of Wisconsin to change their law to mirror the federal law, you will be taking that ability from Wisconsin consumers. By allowing businesses that a consumer has cancelled services with to contact that consumer for up to 18 months, it is forcing the consumer to receive unwanted contact from a company that they obviously did not want to continue a relationship with. Please find in favor of the state of Wisconsin, and allow our no-call law to remain the way it is.

Thank you,
